

Summer Program

Youthful brilliance scintillates in summer Japan

2016

JSPS Summer Program provides opportunities for young pre- and post-doctoral researchers from North America and Europe to receive an orientation on Japanese culture and research systems and to pursue research under the guidance of host researchers at Japanese universities and research institutes over a period of two months during the summer.

JSPS JAPAN SOCIETY FOR THE PROMOTION OF SCIENCE
日本学術振興会

The Japan Society for the Promotion of Science (JSPS) operates as an independent administrative institution to perform the following main functions: creating world-class knowledge in diverse fields, building robust international cooperative networks, fostering the next generations of researchers and enhancing the education and research functions of universities and building evidence-based science-promotion systems while strengthening linkage with society.
